SENATOR MURPHY: On LB 8, for instance, and at the end of my argument or my particular input in the same breath call for the question? Barring others from speaking immediately behind me.

PRESIDENT: I think you could call for it.

SENATOR MURPHY: Fine.

PRESIDENT: Then it would . . . you would have to have a vote for that. But I see nothing in the Rules that would prohibit a mover of any question, at the conclusion of his initial presentation, to call for the question. Senator Anderson, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR ANDERSON: I wanted to ask a question of the Chair. What's the status on LB 8 now?

PRESIDENT: It's still on final reading.

SENATOR ANDERSON: May I make a motion to bracket the bill. The reason the amendment was brought in was to bring this thing in compliance with a bill that had been heard in our committee. This is a bill that Senator Barnett stopped on final reading, I don't know it's probably been 10 days ago now. The reason we did this was to attempt to eliminate a conflict between this and LB 27, which is Senator Richard Lewis' bill. I think the proper thing to do now would be to ask unanimous consent to bracket this thing until the Legislature takes action on LB 27 and until LB 27 catches up with it.

PRESIDENT: You are asking for unanimous consent to bracket LB 8?

SENATOR ANDERSON: That's correct.

PRESIDENT: Is there any objection? There is an objection. Do you care to move that now Senator?

SENATOR ANDERSON: I move that LB 8 be bracketed until the Legislature takes action on LB 27.

PRESIDENT: Are you ready for the question? The question is, shall LB 8 be bracketed until . . . or just bracketed Senator? Would Senator Anderson arise again please. Was your motion simply to bracket or to a time certain?

SENATOR ANDERSON: Until the Legislature takes action on LB 27. Then we'll know definitely what the status on the bill is.

PRESIDENT: Fine. Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: I need to ask a question, Mr. President, for point of clarification. As I understand it, LB 8 has been passed on final reading. We have not taken a vote on reconsideration.

PRESIDENT: We did Senator.
